A wonderful night

Last Saturday night, I went to the park and the flower market. First, I went to the park to take photos there. Next, I went to the flower market to appreciate the colourful and gorgeous flowers. It was really amazing to look at the different kinds of flowers. I love the flowers very much so I took a lot of photos there. Finally, I went to the Japanese restaurant to enjoy the delicious Japanese cuisine. It was a wonderful night at the spring festival.
