Rapunzel

Once upon a time, in the castle, there lived a king and a queen. One day the queen was going to have a baby boy, but the king wanted a baby girl.

The fairy saw this, so she used her magic to change the baby to a girl.

At the castle, the fairy told the king and queen about that, she said "Your majesty, I used my magic to change your baby into a girl and name her Rapunzel."

The king and queen were very surprised, the king said "Wow! I didn't know you could do that." The queen said, "What do you want? We can give it to you." The fairy answered, "No need, your majesty." The king said, "Really? You are so nice!" Then the fairy said, "Your majesty, I should help you."

When the queen's baby was born that day, all the people in the kingdom went to the castle to celebrate the baby's birth. Everyone was happy. Suddenly, a witch came out and took the baby. Everyone was frightened. The king and queen were very sad because the witch took Rapunzel away.

The witch put Rapunzel in a big house. She combed Rapunzel's hair every day and never cut her hair, so Rapunzel's hair was very long. She even can wrap herself with her hair!

Rapunzel never left the house. She sat on the chair every day and sang songs. Sometimes, she drew pictures, baked yummy cakes and talked to her animal friends. Also, the witch told Rapunzel to clean the house every day. Rapunzel was very tired.

When Rapunzel was ten years old, the fairy took Rapunzel to the castle. Rapunzel was very scared. Then the king and queen told Rapunzel, "We were your parents. At first, you were a boy, this fairy used her magic to change you into a girl and named you Rapunzel. When you were born, a witch took you to another place, so you didn't know who we are. The fairy was very kind, she saved your life."

Now Rapunzel knew that the king and queen were her parents. She was joyful. She thanked the fairy for saving her and gave her a special gift, she asked the fairy's friend to change her into a girl. The fairy was happy because she is a girl. This is her wish. Every day, Rapunzel played with her. They were very best friends. The fairy was cheerful.

They lived happily ever after.
